

Project background

- The improvements shown tonight were requested by the City of Boise and the Boise School District
- The Maple Grove Road and Northview Street intersection was originally intended to be pedestrian signal
- Analysis shows that there is enough traffic on Northview Street to justify a traffic signal