

Livable Streets & Transit

Transit is a very important part of the Livable Streets vision and will be accommodated through roadway design in response to Valley Regional Transit's plans.

Livable Streets:

- Are ready-made for bus transit, providing for on-street operations without special right-of-way or unique street design considerations.
- Provide sufficient space to accommodate bus stops and their amenities.

