

Potential Phasing of Preferred Corridor Alternative

A phasing plan will be developed to identify how the various roadway, intersection, pedestrian, and bicycle projects could be implemented for the preferred corridor alternative.

* Overpass study results may impact the prioritization and timing of projects at the medium- and long-term stages.

