

How to stay involved and next steps

Materials from tonight's open house and a short survey will be available at www.achdidaho.org. Please encourage those who could not attend to visit the project website and complete the survey.

Your comments will be used to help develop a range of possible improvements to the intersection.

Watch for an invitation to attend a second public meeting early next year to review and give input on a range of possible improvements to the intersection.